7. Acceptance

No legal right to acceptance exists. Exhibitors which do not meet their financial obligations towards the company organizing the exhibition or which have contravened these conditions can be excluded from acceptance. In case of overbooking the right of selection is reserved. Acceptance of exhibitors will be confirmed in writing and is only valid for the exhibitor named in the letter of confirmation. The contract between exhibitor and Organizer becomes valid with the mailing of the acceptance. The Organizer is entitled to withdraw acceptance if it was given on the basis of false premises or the preconditions of acceptance are subsequently no longer applicable.

8. Allocation and change of allocation

Should the allocated area not be available for reasons beyond the Organizer's control, the exhibitor is not entitled to reimbursement of the participation charge. No right to claim damages exists.

Giving reasons, the Organizer may, if circumstances should so dictate, allocate a location other than the one stated in the acceptance or alter the size of the stand by a maximum of 15 p.c.

Partition walls, columns and projections, as well as hydrants, fire extinguishers, etc. are considered part of the allocated stand and it is the exhibitors duty to inform himself on size and location of the above mentioned. No compensation may be claimed, even in case of errors of allocation.

9. Terms of payment

On acceptance the exhibitor has to pay the full charge for the rented exhibition space. Any complaints must be made in writing immediately on receipt of the invoice. Objections raised at a later date cannot be considered. The invoice on space rental is due to payment within 4 weeks, but at least until the official registration deadline. Any invoice dated later than the official registration deadline is due to immediate payment. Please remit your deposit quoting invoice number and name of the exhibition to the bank account of:

In case of late payment interest of 8 p.c. on top of the Deutsche Bank interest rate valid at this moment is charged. Exhibitors- and Setting-up passes are only handed out after full payment of stand rental and all other fees. The Organizer is entitled to withhold equipment and exhibits of the client and sell it after written notification to cover the expenses, if payment has not been effectuated within the period settled.

10. Co-exhibitors and joint stands

Without the consent of the Organizer, exhibitors are not permitted to make available all or parts of the stand allocated to them to third parties either in return for payment or free of charge. No advertising or promotion of firms not named in the acceptance is permitted on the stand.

Applications for the inclusion of a co-exhibitor must be made to the Organizer in writing. A co-exhibitor fee as stipulated in the special conditions for each single event will be payable to the Organizer. In all cases the exhibitor which is the registered user of the stand is liable for payment of the co-exhibitor fee. The co-exhibitor is subject to the same terms and conditions as the main exhibitor. The Organizer may authorize large joint stands of exhibitors, provided that they can be incorporated into an appropriate subdivision of the exhibition. All regulations apply to each exhibitor. If a stand is allocated to two or more firms jointly, each firm is liable for the total fee towards the Organizer. Firms exhibiting on a joint basis should name a joint representative in their registration.

11. Cancellation or non-participation

Cancellation of the registration is possible prior to its acceptance. The cancellation fee is 800,- Euro plus value-added tax. After acceptance no cancellation or reduction of the stand area registered by the exhibitor is accepted. The entire participation cost and other costs already incurred must be paid. The restructuring of space distribution and/or relocation of other exhibition stands by the Organizer to maintain the overall visual impression does not release the exhibitor from his obligation to pay. Should an exhibitor choose not to occupy stand space allocated to him and the Organizer not be able to rent this space to another exhibitor (this does not apply to the case of restructuring occupancy), the exhibitor will be liable for the entire payment for the rented space; should the Organizer be able to re-rent the said space to another exhibitor (this does not apply to the case of restructuring occupancy), the exhibitor is nevertheless liable for a 25 p.c. of the participation fee invoiced with the acceptance or the sum of 800,- Euro cancellation fee as a minimum. In the case of non-participation on the part of a co- or sub-exhibitor, the full amount of the co-/sub-exhibitor fee shall be payable.

12. Exhibition Catalogue

The Organizer will issue an official exhibition catalogue. The standard entry to the catalogue is obligatory and exemptions cannot be made. The standard entry consists of the company's name, full address, phone, fax and e-mail. This regulation also applies to sub-exhibitors. The cost for the catalogue entry shall be charged according to the specifications on the adjoined sheet for each exhibition.

13. Liability and insurance

It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to insure the goods exhibited against all risks in connection with transport, setting-up and dismantling and during the exhibition, in particular against damage, theft etc. The exhibitor shall be liable to compensate the Organizer for any damage caused by him to the exhibition space rented, stand material, electricity, water and sewerage systems or any other property of the Organizer. The Organizer does not accept any liability for loss of or damage to the goods exhibited or other valuables which belong to the exhibitor, his representatives or persons employed or invited by him, including loss or damage due to water, fire, explosion, whirlwinds, lightning, flooding or other instances of force majeure, damage or injuries inflicted on the exhibitor, his representatives and other persons employed by him or invited by him, irrespective of the cause of such injuries or damage.

In particular the Organizer accepts no liability for damage to exhibition goods or their removal in cases in which use was made of the decorating department. With his acceptance of the conditions of participation the exhibitor explicitly releases the Organizer and firms acting on his behalf from any rights of recourse whatsoever on the part of third parties. No right to claim damages exists.

14. Circular letters

The exhibitors will be informed by the Organizer by circulars of details concerning the preparations and running of the exhibition. The Organizer does not accept any liability for any consequences of disregarding these circulars.

15. Transport

Transport on the exhibition grounds will be undertaken by a firm appointed by the Organizer. Accordingly this firm will take over transport of objects delivered by the exhibitor or its forwarders at the boundary of the exhibition grounds and continue their transport on the exhibition grounds. The exhibition management will not accept delivery of any consignments and does not accept any liability for loss or incorrect delivery. The costs for these transports on the exhibition grounds are to be paid by the exhibitors to the transport firm directly.

16. Reserved rights

In the case of important reasons beyond his control the Organizer has the right to postpone the exhibition, to curtail or prolong it, to close it for certain periods, to close it completely or in part, or to cancel it. In such justified exceptional circumstances, as in all cases of force majeure, the exhibitors do not have any right to withdraw or adjust the participation charges, nor do they have any right to claim any damages. Should the exhibition not take place for the reasons stated above, the exhibitor can be called upon to pay up to 25 p.c. of the participation charge to cover general costs. Larger individual sums can only be charged if the exhibitor has ordered additional services for which charges are made. Should the Organizer be responsible for the cancellation no sums shall be owed. No right of compensation exists.

17. Limitation period

All claims of the exhibitors against the Organizer shall be in lapse after a six-month period. The limitation period begins to run from the end of the month in which the final day of the exhibition fell.

18. Final Provision

With his registration for participation the exhibitor accepts in full as legally binding these conditions of participation as well as the house and ground rules in force at the exhibition venue. Additional agreements, special permissions or other kinds of arrangements require the written consent of the Organizer.

19. Partial Inoperativeness

Should parts of the present conditions of participation should be or become inoperative, this will not touch the remaining parts of the conditions of participation. Any inoperative part of these conditions shall be replaced by a regulation that respects the aims and the reason of these conditions.

20. Legal right applicable

The law of the Federal German Republic is applicable excluding the standardized UN commercial law.

21. Performance and venue
